

Character Builders have been working on the restoration of a roundhouse and large traditional barn of ours for the last 9 months. We have found them to be a young team who are enthusiastic about what they are doing, hard working, well organised, tidy and never willing to settle for less than the highest professional standards. They have been unfailingly helpful and considerate and great fun to have around. We would not hesitate to recommend them to anyone.

Nigel and Alice Padfield